Property and Commercial Lawyer

- Full or Part time position – Hobart or Kingston

We are seeking an experienced Property and Commercial Lawyer, with a particular focus on estate planning, to join our firm in either our Hobart or Kingston office. The firm's reputation is one of excellence in achieving results and delivering strong client service at every level.

The Role:

You would be working in our highly successful and regarded commercial department on a varied mix of commercial matters including but not limited to:

- Wills and estate planning
- Property, conveyancing and subdivisions
- Leasing
- Business sales and purchases

Candidate Skills

As an experienced Commercial Lawyer, you would possess:

- 2 plus years' post qualification experience
- The ability to manage complex commercial files
- Client relationship abilities
- Time management skills
- Superior organisational skills with a proactive attitude and focus
- Exceptional attention to detail

This position offers an enviable opportunity to the right candidate who would already be, or ready to make the next step in their career.

An attractive and generous salary package will be negotiated with the successful applicant commensurate with qualifications and experience, with significant upside for future growth.

You will be well resourced, supported and highly regarded. You will be joining a team which operates on the basis of mutual respect and your welfare will be a top priority.
